

Local and State College Scholarships

Businesses from around the state often reach out to local high schools to advertise scholarship opportunities. ACS will share and update information on this page.

Link to Application	Details from Email or Contact Information
https://www.derricklawfirm.com/library/scholarship.cfm	My name is Gabby Strother, and I am a Marketing Assistant at The Derrick Law Firm in South Carolina. We have created a scholarship for high school seniors and current undergraduate college students in the United States that we would like to share with Anderson Christian School. If possible, we would like to give you a link to our scholarship application to place on your financial aid page so that students can apply! The URL is www.derricklawfirm.com/scholarship but you may hyperlink it as the “Dirk Derrick Car & Truck Accident Injury Scholarship” if you wish. If you have any comments or questions, please feel free to reply back to me at gabby.strother@derricklawfirm.com.
https://www.clemson.edu/centers-institutes/capitalism/lyceum/scholars.html	Open to students of any major, the Lyceum Scholars Program at Clemson University offers $10,000 scholarships to study liberty, capitalism, the American founding, and moral character. Lyceum Scholars leave the program as serious thinkers, articulate speakers, and eloquent writers. Lyceum alumni are Ph.D. and law students, professors, lawyers, teachers, engineers, and businessmen and women.
https://christianconnector.com/	Complete the form to receive information from Christian colleges and enter the $5,000 Christian college scholarship drawing. The Christian Connector, as well as those schools that you request information from, will receive your information so they can respond and meet your information request. After completing this form and reviewing your schools of interest, you may also take advantage of the Christian College Scholarship Search.

